

WALKING THE PATH TO WEALTH

5 TRUTHS YOU MUST CARRY WITH YOU...

Peter Kross

—
Health • Wealth • Wisdom

Copyright © 2016

All rights reserved.

Note to the Reader:

While the publisher of this book has made reasonable efforts to ensure the accuracy and timeliness of the information contained herein, the author and publisher assume no liability with respect to losses or damage caused, or alleged to be caused, by any reliance on any information contained herein and disclaim any and all warranties, expressed or implied, as to the accuracy or reliability of said information. The publisher and the author make no representations or warranties with respect to the accuracy or completeness of the contents of this work and specifically disclaim all warranties. The advice and strategies contained herein may not be suitable for every situation. It is the complete responsibility of the reader to ensure they are adhering to all local, regional and national laws.

This publication is designed to provide accurate and authoritative information in regard to the subject matter covered. It is sold or distributed with the understanding that neither the author nor the publisher is engaged in rendering professional services. If legal, accounting, medical, psychological, or any other expert assistance is required, the services of a competent professional should be sought.

Inclusion, exclusion, or definition of a word is not intended to affect, or to express judgement upon the validity of legal status of any proprietary right which may be claimed for a specific word or term.

The fact that an organisation or website is referred to in this work as a citation and/or potential source of further information does not mean that the author or publisher endorses the information the organisation or website may provide or the recommendations it may make. Furthermore, readers should be aware that the websites listed in this work may have changed or disappeared between when this work was written and when it is read.

Individual results may vary.

content

Special

Introduction
Page 1

First Truth
Page 2

Second Truth
Page 4

Third Truth
Page 6

Fourth Truth
Page 8

Fifth Truth
Page 10

INTRODUCTION

In walking the path to true wealth and success, reprogramming your mind to accommodate the wealth that you're working so hard to achieve is a good start... but that's what it is – a start.

As you walk the path to wealth you need to further learn the traits of successful people that makes them different from the crowd and I'm going to be showing you five very important ones NOW!

There is nothing profound or difficult about these truths but as you embark on your journey to wealth and success, these truths become very critical to guide you and help you stay on course.

FIRST TRUTH

Frustration is unavoidable,
you must learn to control it.

Frustrating situations happen to everyone in different ways, if you let it, it can hang on like a bad stinking smell in your life and in the lives of those around you.

It is always in your best interest to bring it to subjection and not let it take over you.

FIRST TRUTH

Frustration can kill dreams, and can change a positive mind set into a negative one if you're not careful.

A negative mind set produces a negative attitude; a negative attitude wipes out self-discipline; and when self-discipline goes, it goes along with the OUTCOMES you hope to achieve.

The road to wealth and success is paved with massive frustration. The ability to put your frustrations to discipline puts you at an advantage and positions you for lasting success.

If anyone tells you otherwise, you can be sure that they don't know anything about achieving lasting success.

SECOND TRUTH

Master the art of handling rejection.

This is one of the things that human beings can do nearly anything to avoid but as you walk the path to wealth and success, you have to learn to treat every No as a step closer to your desired YES.

When we're rejected, we often times turn that failure or rejection into a major experience and this attitude reprogram our minds to focus more on the experience of failure instead of our desired outcome.

SECOND TRUTH

Remember, the brain focuses only on the things that are important to us so when we make rejection a big deal, our minds focus on it and voila... we start to see and experience those situations more frequently.

Think about all the great things that you could have done but haven't just because of your fear of that 2-letter word "No".

Think about how you're placing a limit on the quality of your life just because you're not bold enough to handle that 2-letter word... sounds crazy doesn't it?

Remember, the word "no" has no power in itself, its powers lie in the limit it makes us create for ourselves.

THIRD TRUTH

Learn to control your "money desires".

Financial pressure can and have destroyed a lot of people today. At the same time, it has propelled many others to place of great wealth and massive success beyond imagination.

THIRD TRUTH

Handling your financial desires effectively simply means – mastering the process of getting and giving as well as the process of earning and saving.

You can either make money work for you or let it work against you just like everything else. You must develop the capacity to handle money with purpose and classiness with the ability to earn, save and give.

You will start to consider yourself as very successful (sometimes subconsciously) when you can do this effectively and consistently.

FOURTH TRUTH

You must deal with complacency ruthlessly.

Wealth and success comes with a lot of comfort and comfort can come with a lot of complacency if you're not careful. We see them every day; models that get fat, performers who lose their spark etc.

What happened was that these people became comfortable and grew over familiar with what they have.

FOURTH TRUTH

This is a story that doesn't end very well for anyone that falls to the trap of laziness because when you get too comfortable, you stop working. When you stop working, you stop growing. When you stop growing, you stop adding value, and you know where the story ends.

As complacency sets in, we tend to compare ourselves with other people that we're better than; using that to create an illusion for ourselves that we're still doing okay. Watch out for it and don't get caught up, you must learn to judge yourself by your own goals and not by the accomplishments of others.

You can choose to see success as an opportunity for bigger achievements or as a place of rest but remember the system of the bicycle; you only fall when you stop riding.

FIFTH TRUTH

Learn to give more than you get.

This is one major area of life that guarantees unspeakable happiness and fulfilment – trust me, I know.

Life in itself is filled with cycles of giving and receiving; endless opportunities to make meaning and find fulfilment but...

FIFTH TRUTH

A lot of people like to start this cycle by expecting to receive first before they give. That's not bad, everyone else does that BUT if you want rise about the pack and make your life work, you must learn to give first before expecting to receive.

There is an old saying that says "receiving is evidence that you're giving". Even the Bible says "it is more blessed to give than to receive".

Please note here that giving is not restricted to just money or material wealth, it can be an act of compassion, an apology or even a kind word. Whatever it is, just make sure you seize the opportunity to give first whenever you get the chance.

Just like the law of sowing and reaping: you sow first, and then you water and nurture it before it produces fruits.

CONCLUSION

Several methods, tricks, and skills can lead anyone to wealth in any field... but the principles that will keep you there are the same irrespective of your discipline.

If you work against these principles and truths, they will work against you and your journey to lasting success might end up as a bottomless pit OR your wealth might be short lived if you manage to strike gold somehow.

I have come to know this by study, observation and experience and so I will like you to remember my last words to you in this eBook...

“LASTING WEALTH IS NOT STUMBLED UPON OR ACCIDENTALLY ACHIEVED... THERE ARE PROCESSES!!!”